FINAL CONFLICT

Final Conflict is produced to offer people a political, cultural and economic answer to the forces of Internationalism.

Whilst most of our articles etc. are serious, FC does at times use humour and on occassion takes a light-hearted look at the world, for Nationalists must take a break now and then.

It is published by National Revolutionary activists and is independent of all political organisations; though editorially it supports the International Third Position.

FC welcomes contributions from readers, which upon publication become the copyright of FC. Written matter should be typed in double spacing and artwork should be in black ink.

Those wishing to reproduce articles, artwork, interviews, photographs etc. from FC should first gain the written permission of the editors, and then publish the name and address of FC with the reprinted matter.

OUR VIEW

The front cover of this issue depicts a man from America whom most of you will have heard of. Although not everyone agrees with the path he and his Comrades took (presumably after much deliberation), one cannot but admire him for his sacrifice whilst fighting the Zionist Occupation Government (ZOG) of America.

From America we cross over the Atlantic to Ireland to look at current events there. We hope our Irish article sparks a lot of debate, because for far too long, in Britain at least, Ireland has been looked on as the sole property of the Marxists. Now the truth is starting to drift across the sea from Ireland. The Reds are on the run in Ireland - just as they are throughout Europe.

Our report from Spain is a personal light-hearted look at a trip made by five Nationalists from these isles over to Spain for the November 20th gathering in Madrid. It shows how Nationalists are co-operating on a Europe-wide scale, and the co-operation is far from one way or confined merely to the Nations mentioned in the report.

In Issue 2 of Final Conflict we featured Italy and Germany. Interestingly, our report from Germany was re-printed in an Irish-based Nationalist journal. We hope to continue to run articles on Nations around the world to show Nationalists that the fight is a world-wide one and that we are co-operating with our Comrades overseas.

In the British and Irish media there has been the odd article on the 'Emergency Aid for Croatia' organisation. A few Red/Anarchist rags have picked up on it too. All were quick to link the charity with the ITP. Of course the public have been told "This may be a scam to raise money for themselves. . ." (Sunday Observer) or "Anything they collect will go, not to legitimate charities, but to the HOS - the Croat Party of the Right." (Irish News), but now that the first delivery of foodstuffs, clothing etc. has been made to civilians at the front line in Croatia the media (and the leftists it trundled forward to give interviews) will be seen as liars. [A video and magazine which shows the delivery etc. is available from: Emergency Aid for Croatia, BCM ITP, London, WC1N 3XX, England. Send an SAE/IRC for details].

Our enemies do not like the fact that we are helping our friends abroad, they would rather we stay 'home' and dismiss our Comrades abroad as "racially inferior" - but we fear that's Holywood Nazism and nothing to do with the genuine Nationalist struggle. We are fighting a world-wide alliance of bankers, liberals, Reds, big businessmen, Freemasons, New Agers etc. To combat these 'strange bedfellows' we must be prepared to stand and fight at any place and at any time, and provide help wherever it is needed, whether it's Portugal, Hungary, Lithuania, America, South Africa or Australia. Together we can win . . .

A STATEMENT ABOUT "THIRD WAY"

We'd like to make it clear that FINAL CONFLICT (and the INTERNATIONAL THIRD POSITION - ITP) has nothing whatsoever to do with the English, Kensington (London SW7) based, magazine and organisation "Third Way". They espouse the belief that Jews are European Whites and that Judaism will be allowed in their society (i.e. will be on a par with Christianity). The head and some members of TW have links with occult /satanist groups/individuals. We condemn this unreservedly. We do not consider this grouplet Nationalist and we advise people to think carefully if considering contacting them.

REDS OPPOSE FINAL CONFLICT

Communist students in Belfast threatened a newsagent who was selling Final Conflict with violence. A gang of the brave heroes turned up and told the newsagent to withdraw FC from sale "or else". Still, at least a few were sold before the 'unwashed brigade' got there.

ISRAELIS TRAIN COMMUNIST SERBS

In keeping with the well established link between Communism and Jews, Red Serb units have been trained by the Israelis. These units have been responsible for some of the worst attrocities in the Balkans - even by Communist standards. The Israelis have been delving into European affairs with gusto of late as they're worried by the success and popularity of Nationalism throughout Europe.

STICKY FINGERS

A "Serbian" swindler who ripped off Serbs through a banking fraud has fled with his wallet bulging. The low life in question, who was known to favour war crimes against the Croatians and funded the Communist militia responsible for attrocities, has fled to....can you guess?....ISRAEL. Surprise surprise.

NEW REVISIONISM

Melvin Durden wrote a letter into the 'Jewish Chronicle' in March to tell of how, sitting on a London bus after WW2, he saw ". . . a procession of Blackshirts marching to the beat of drums along the Strand." Of course poor old Melvin instantly recalled the horrors of WW2 (is he after reparations or what?). Interesting then that the "blackshirts" that the British Union of Fascists wore before WW2 were banned by the Public Order Act of 1936. Is this yet another case of a hallucination when it comes to "anti-semites"?

WAR CRIMES

"So many years after the war, I don't know what will be achieved . . . He did the wrong thing, no doubt, but what's the point of putting him on trial now? His life is already ruined because he knows what he did. God is the only judge." Who is that talking about an alleged war criminal of so many years past? Is it one of the "allies" from WW2 or an Israeli talking about an elderly Lithuanian, German or Pole? No, it's an Argentinian talking about a British soldier who allegedly shot him after he surrendered in the Falklands War. The Argentinian thinks the old wounds should be left to heal - just over 10 years after the conflict. Those who want to stick old men in jail for alleged crimes over 50 years ago would do well to listen to his words.

NATIONAL LIBERAL FRONT

What's left of the NF now is really going down hill. In West London there's been somebody mailing out razor blades with racist stickers. In the mail bag of the Hounslow, Feltham and Richmond Times (12/3/93) Jeremy Bedford-Turner (wow - what a name) of Richmond and Hounslow NF went out of his way to clear the NF of the foul deed, but hinted that the BNP, BNSM, The Oak or New Order may have been responsible. Jeremy Liberal-Windbag went on to say ". . . I for one would be willing to join the 'Nazis out of Hounslow' group that has been set up." Come on Jeremy, pull your socks up - why hide what you feel? Why not call for the "patriotic, democratic, legal" NF and Anti-Fascist Action to join forces to beat the nasty horrible fascists?

A CROATIAN FIGHTS FOR US

Mario Zivkovic, who runs a family centre in Zagreb, came to England recently to help fight for English children - just as many Englishmen, and other Europeans, have gone to Croatia to fight for the rights of Croatian children against Serbian Communist aggression. Mr. Zivkovic who took part in demos outside abortion clinics said: "I have come from Croatia to express my sympathy with people who love British children enough to want to allow them to survive pregnancy."

PARTY TIME IS OVER

If any proof were needed that party politics is a waste of time, the French FN have supplied it. They got 1,168,150 votes and lost their only seat in the recent French elections. The Communists meanwhile got 951,213 and kept 23 MPs. It's time our people learnt - if we could get anywhere by elections - the State would change the rules.

TO HEAR OR NOT TO HEAR

Virgin 1215, a new Radio Station, put out a list of what bands you will hear on it and what ones you won't. Amongst the ones we won't hear were listed Anthrax, NWA, Kylie Minogue, Rolf Harris and Skrewdriver. But whilst the others are played by radio stations in general, not one will play a Skrewdriver record. What closed shop?

"INFILTRATION" HYSTERIA

In a bizarre front page article on Wednesday 7th April the (London) Daily Telegraph told of Nationalist groups trying to infiltrate animal rights groups. This all stemmed from the death of 15 year-old Thomas Worby at a demonstration in Cambridgeshire the previous weekend. Thomas had allegedly been recruited to the animal rights movement by Margaret Flynn, activist with (and wife of the leader of) the National Socialist organisation, the 'November 9th Society' and well known animal rights veteran activist.

The article went on (see clippings on the right) to accuse the ITP and the Patriotic Vegan/Vegetarian Society of trying to infiltrate animal rights groups.

In short neither organisation is doing this. It is up to individual Nationalists (like Margaret Flynn and countless others) if they want to help sabotage hunts, attack vivesection laboratories etc. and for groups like the 'Hunt Saboteurs Association' to ban individuals for being "fascist" whilst Red human garbage are allowed to join shows how pathetic, ignorant and shallow they are.

The Patriotic Vegan/Vegetarian Society is made up of Nationalists already involved in the animal rights movement and who want to involve more Nationalists and convert them to veganism or vegetarianism - not to win over spineless liberals to Nationalism. It also exists to prevent the Marxists/liberals using the animal rights organisations and gatherings for their own ends.

For more information on the Patriotic Vegan/Vegetarian Society write to: PV/VS, c/o BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

Send an SAE (IRC from abroad) for their leaflet in reply to lies put about by London Greenpeace and a Anti Nazi League animal rights front group. Send £1 for their booklet 'A Vegan Diet For a Healthy Folk and Nation'.

Among far-Right groups the association says are involved are the International Third Position, a splinter group comprising former members of the National Front, who sought to communicate through a Belfast post office box number.

The association also said that a skinhead group, calling itself the Patriotic Vegan/Vegetarian Society, which provided a box number in central London, was actively seeking to join anti-hunt events.

Observers who monitor the activity of Right-wing groups say neo-Nazis have become keen to get involved in animal welfare movements. Many share a belief in animal rights, vegetarianism and veganism with their counterparts on the Left.

By opposing methods of slaughter used by Jewish and Muslim butchers, they are able to campaign on an animal welfare and a race platform at the same time.

One anonymous extremist wrote in the nationalist magazine Final Conflict urging readers to join the Animal Liberation Front.

"To join the ALF is easy," he wrote. "Anyone who carries out direct action against those who abuse animals is the ALF. This means that liberals cannot stop you, me, or even Hitler himself from 'joining'.

"Both Hitler and Hess were vegetarians, and, had the ALF been around in their day, they would no doubt have supported it. That will give the liberals something to moan about."

Mr Gerry Gable, of the anti-fascist research group Searchlight, said: "This has

"OH I DO LIKE TO BE BESIDE THE SEASIDE. . ."

Bank Holiday Monday. Where else could any normal person be, apart from at the seaside? So, we packed our buckets and spades (and stickers) and toddled off to Brighton for the day.

As usual, the bloke on the radio got it all wrong. He reckoned it was going to rain. In fact it was a beautiful sunny day and loads of other people made their way to the seaside too.

Once there, one of us went to help on an animal rights stall, whilst the rest of us busied ourselves with ice creams, beers, cockles (just to upset all you veggies) and lots of stickering.

Brighton is a nice enough town. The people there seem to be, for the most part, well off. In fact, it struck us as a bit of a middle class town. However, there is a sinister side to 'peaceful Brighton' . . .

A friendly pub, probably not in Brighton.

MAGNET

Brighton seems to be a magnet for all sorts of people who are opposed to the idea of a healthy society. Walking along the sea front, it soon became clear that there was a higher proportion of race-mixing couples in Brighton than elsewhere - especially weird was the amount of Desperate Dans with coloured/asian females (no insult intended to fans of D. Dan and 'the Dandy').

But worst of all, up the other end of town, where the animal rights folk had their stall (in Boots the Chemists' doorway) there was a high proportion of homosexuals - or as one of the animal rights people told us ". . . millions of bloody queers!" One of the locals pointed out that drinking in the pubs in this area was "extremely dodgy" and that in his residential area of Brighton there was an ongoing battle between the locals and the faggots to keep the queer vermin out of the pubs, so a family atmosphere would prevail.

AIDS VIVISECTION

How we all chuckled when one of the animal rights activists told us all of one poof, who looked thin and extremely ill, who shouted across the road his support for vivisection in finding a cure for AIDS. "What about people with AIDS!" he shouted at the stall. The instant (and witty) reply was "They die, don't they?". Buy that man a beer!

On our stroll back to our vehicle we noticed one of our Nationalist stickers had been destroyed in what can only be described as a frenzied attack, so we replaced it with many more. All in all it was an extremely enjoyable day (even if I got some oil on my T-Shirt off the beach) and we left the town looking a damn sight healthier than when we got there. See you next Bank Holiday, Brighton.

DEAD ON ARRIVAL 7" by Straw Dogs and PERVERS & ASOZIAL 7" EP by Springtoifel. Both singles cost £3 inc. p&p in the UK (£3.50 in Europe, £4 elsewhere). Make all cheques etc. payable to: 'Final Conflict' and send orders to: FC, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

IS IRELAND RED?

To avoid any misunderstanding that may arise, the official policy of Final Conflict is Independence for Ulster. We do not believe in an "united" Ireland. For more info on an Independent Ulster, send an SAE to: Open Revolt, c/o the Final Conflict address.

A lot of Reds in Britain have, over the last few years, thought that Ireland in some way belongs to them. Because Sinn Fein are Marxist and a lot of people in Ireland support their idea of a "united Ireland", the Reds were usually seen as being "pro-Irish" and ourselves as being somehow "anti-Irish" - especially if we opposed Sinn Fein/IRA marches in Britain.

However, recent events in Ireland have bowled the Reds over and have shown them exactly what the Irish people think of them.

Youth Defence is a militant anti-abortion group. They have held mass demonstrations in Dublin, with thousands taking to the streets demanding that abortion remain illegal. YD have also held protests outside the homes and businesses of well known (pro) abortionists and show pictures which display the reality of abortion. That makes the enemy cringe.

"We have Youth Defence groups set up all over Ireland with 3,000 members, and the Youth Defence Roadshow that travels about the country pushing our message with graphic displays and recruiting new members. In some places our members have been arrested for terrible "crimes" like handing out leaflets, displaying "obscene" material (photographs of murdered babies), and daring to breathe in public! But we do not care, we will carry on because we have an obligation to do so."

Cliona Ni Mhurchu, YD activist.

One thing the enemy hates is when people are shown the true horrors of abortion. They want people to think it's just a cluster of cells (a 'foetus') being sucked out; not a baby being crushed to death or being slowly poisoned with a salt solution. That's why the politicians always attack people who publicise what happens in abortions - they want to hide the truth. After all, if an abortion is just "another operation", why don't we see it on TV as often as heart operations or kidney transplants? They are obviously shying away from reality.

The most amusing thing about the recent events in Ireland has been 'Class War's response. Class War are a British anarchist group who have always tried to convince others how tough they are. They use a lot of swear words in their paper and have photos of injured policemen with amusing comments underneath. (See FC#1 for our article revealing CW for what they are).

However, in issue 57 of CW their mask slipped. CW who often boast of "smashing the fascists" and use Malcolm X's slogan "By All Means Necessary", bemoaned the fact that Youth Defence are not afraid to defend themselves and that some supporters do not fear beating Reds and anarchists to a pulp. A picket outside the YD offices was ". . . met by a group of men from the pub, who attacked it with bars and snooker cues." CW goes on to winge about YD's links to "Right Wing" Nationalists and various anti-Communist groups.

Due to Sinn Fein's Marxist views, many look on Ireland as a Red Nation. Scum like Sinead O'Conner do not help the situation.

"Whether we win or lose the referendum for the unborn we will not go away. We will not keep quiet about abortion, divorce, pornography or anything else that affects the young people and children of Ireland. We have over 20% unemployment, constant emigration and all sorts of social and economic injustice. We know that usury is the cause of these ills and many more. We know that the people who control finance are the real power behind the moral and social destruction of our land. We know that these people are the real government, hidden and unelected rulers of this country and of every country. And we know that the answer to these problems can be found in the traditional social teaching of the Church."

Cliona Ni Mhurchu, YD activist.

The Left Wing have taken over the "Irish Struggle". Here we see Gerry Adams, a Sinn Fein Marxist, hobnobbing with Maynard and Corbyn, both extreme Socialists. Most Irish would be horrified to see their Community linked with the "Black Community" also.

NO REMORSE

Thanks to No Remorse for taking time out to answer these few questions. NR are one of the better known Nationalist bands around with some excellent records out - but enough trivial banter: on with the interview!

1. How did the American gigs go?
NR: The Aryan Fest '92 was indeed an experience never to be forgotten. There are many fine Nationalists in America, but the pressure upon them is very strong. Whilst we were there No Remorse and Dirlewanger recorded two tracks each for a twelve inch single to be pressed in America and in France by Rebelles Europeens.

2. Can you give us details on your new release, the 'Desert Storm' 12"?
NR: The "Desert Storm" split 12" will be released shortly by Rebelles Europeens. Just to put the record straight, the aforementioned 12" was entitled "Desert Storm" because of the desert surrounds of our concert in California and not as any glorification of the war against Iraq also entitled "Israel Shield".

3. Do you intend to do any more records with the 4th Reich and/or Stormbringer?
NR: The only recordings we are working on at the moment are preparation demos for the forthcoming No Remorse LP "European Skinhead Army". We are all very pleased with the outcome of these preliminary recordings.

4. Apart from the obvious White Nationalist bands what other bands do you listen to?
NR: We all listen to Rock music. Some members of the band also favour Country, Folk and Punk music.

5. What are your views on Rostock and the 'Battle of Waterloo'?
NR: We think that the riots in Rostock echo the problems that all White people in Europe face. Are we to surrender to the lower standards of life thrust upon us by these alien people? The good people of Rostock said NO!

The Battle of Waterloo was an interesting situation, and all credit to the fine Nationalists who gathered there and faced the disgusting behaviour of the police and the predictable cowardice of the Reds. I have been assured that 'Blood & Honour' will stage more concerts in London with better security and venues. I hope that we can again appear on the bill.

6. What books would you recommend to Nationalists who are new to the struggle?
NR: 'White Power' by Commander George Lincoln Rockwell. 'The Silent Brotherhood' [about Bob Mathews & the Order - Ed.] by US journalists. The video of the US film 'The Betrayed'. Blood and Honour magazine. The US paper 'The Truth at Last'.

7. What do you feel lies ahead in the next 2 - 3 years for White Nationalists in the UK?
NR: It is hard to make predictions, but whatever happens it is vital that we must Unify, Purify and Multiply our Movement under one banner - "White Solidarity - White Survival".

WHITE POWER
This attractive, top quality WHITE POWER T-Shirt is now available from Final Conflict, for:

IRELAND CONTINUED . . .

It is good to see the British Reds are now seen as being anti-Irish, and that CW cannot cope when decent folk take to the streets to fight for a just cause. It will be interesting to see what other nonsense CW come out with as the Reds are beaten by argument and force on the streets of Ireland.

We should remember that in places like Liverpool to a large extent the Irish workers joined the British Union of Fascists (BUF) and made it stonger in such areas, and that Irish volunteers (the Blue Shirts) went to fight with the Spanish Nationalists against the Communists and Anarchists in the Spanish Civil War. To think of Ireland as a Red country is ridiculous.

Now in Ireland Nationalists are aware that Sinn Fein are Marxists so they are disassociating themselves from Sinn Fein. Hence the only attack that one newspaper could make on YD was that Sinn Fein provided stewards for a YD march, an allegation that was totally fabricated and entirely untrue.

The strength the Reds had over Ireland has gone. Sinn Fein are being ostracised and the British Reds are having to reassess their, until recently, unreserved support for the "Irish Struggle". As throughout the rest of the world, in Ireland - Red lies are crumbling.

WHITE POWER
by Commander George Lincoln Rockwell.
This extremely interesting book was written in the madness that was 1960's America. This sane island in a sea of riots, degeneracy and Communist aggression, explains why America was falling apart. Of great historic importance. Cost: £8 in UK. £10 in Europe. £12 Elsewhere. All cheques etc. payable to 'Open Revolt' at BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

Learning From The Past

BOB MATHEWS & 'THE ORDER'

Whenever White patriots (the world over) are asked to name their heroes one of the names that virtually always pops up is Robert Jay Mathews. But who was he?

After passing through various "right wing" organisations in his teenage years such as the John Birch Society and the more militant Minutemen, Mathews became a tax protestor. Many patriots in the USA feel that the federal income tax is unconstitutional and therefore simply refuse to pay it or cause the I.R.S. as much trouble as possible. This was Mathews's first brush with the F.B.I. When he was released they followed him to his new home and harrassed him from time to time.

ARYAN NATIONS

Mathews first became involved with militant White Seperatists when he joined the Identity Church of Jesus Christ Christian (or Aryan Nations) run by Rev. Richard Butler. It was here that he met some of the people who were later to become members of one of the most feared and admired paramilitary groups of all time; the 'BRUDERS SCHWEIGEN', better known as THE ORDER.

The American system is corrupt from top to bottom.

The book that changed the life of Robert Mathews was published by a US group called the National Alliance entitled 'Which Way Western Man?' written by William Galey Simpson. Mathews studied the book intensley, marking with a pen important quotes and passages. The book is heavily influenced by the "superman" ideas of Nietzsche and it may have been this book that eventually made Mathews switch his faith to Odinism, although the majority of the members of The Order remained Identity Christian believers.

Shortly after reading the book Mathews became a member of the Alliance. He became more and more influenced by people such as William Pearce and outside the Alliance by Revolutionaries like Louis Beam and Bob Miles. He felt that the way ahead was stated by books such as 33/5, Essays of a Klansmen and most of all William Pearce's The Turner Diaries.

AN OATH

Mathews gathered around himself dedicated National Revolutionaries from the Alliance and Aryan Nations. Gary Yarborough was to be his right hand man. The men took an oath to bring victory and freedom for the White Race at any cost, and a White homeland for White Americans.

Mathews's aim was to build a guerilla army capable of taking control of the country through assasination and uprisings of people loyal to their Race and Nation. The first thing they needed was money. Eventually a counterfeiting operation began. At first all went well but eventually one Alliance member who was asked to launder money was caught. His name was Tom Martinez.

After this The Order moved on to robbing stores, especially pornographic stores that The Order felt deserved it because of the filth that they spread around the Nation.

> "I am not going into hiding, rather I will press the FBI and let them know what it is like to become the hunted. Doing so it is only logical to assume that my days on this planet are rapidly drawing to a close. Even so, I have no fear. For the reality of life is death and the worst the enemy can do is shorten my tour of duty in this world. I will leave knowing my family and friends loved and supported me. I will leave knowing I have made the ultimate sacrifice to secure the future of my children.

Shortly after this The Order moved on to assassination. Alan Berg was a Jewish radio talk-show host. His favourite theme was "Neo-Nazis". Berg would ask for White Seperatists to phone in and give their opinion on a subject but when they phoned he would hold them up to ridicule.

MOCKED

One day Pastor Pete Peters of the LaPorte Church of Christ (an Identity Church) appeared on the show and Berg verbally attacked and, mocked his religious views.

After watching Berg's activities for a while Mathews, David Lane and Bruce Pierce followed Berg back to his apartment and shot him through the head.

At this stage, although The Order had been robbing stores and banks the leadership realised that a Revolution takes an enormous amount of money to organise, and unlike the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia there were no international bankers willing to finance this war.

Eventually it was decided to hold a robbery of the armoured car carrying the money from San Francisco's Brinks depot. It was here that The Order made their one big mistake. Although the robbery was a success, Mathews left a pistol behind.

JUDAS MARTINEZ

The police were able to trace the gun to an associate of The Order. However the end of The Order came via another channel: Tom Martinez. After being caught laundering the counterfeit money the F.B.I. eventually realised this wasn't a simple case (i.e. it went further than the dodgy notes) and offered Martinez a deal. Martinez was to help set up the arrest of The Order by setting up the people who regarded him as a brother. When Mathews and Yarborough met him at a hotel to discuss helping Martinez to escape arrest for the counterfeiting the F.B.I. pounced. After a brave fight Yarborough was taken prisoner. Mathews however was able to make his escape after which he made his way to Whidbey Island - one of more than 600 small islands off the coast of Washington and he arranged for the remaining members of the Bruder Schweigen to meet him there.

"As for the traitor, we will eventually find him. If it takes 10 years and we have to travel to the far ends of the earth we will find him. And true to our oath when we find him we will remove his head from his body."

Bob Mathews talking about Martinez.

The F.B.I. soon found out The Order's whereabouts and massed 150 SWAT members around the house. Many members of The Order were able to flee the island, only to be picked up by the State soon after.

DEADLY FIRE

Eventually only Mathews and Robert and Sharon Merki were left in the house. After holding out for some time the Merkis left the house and pleaded with Mathews to join them. Mathews had made his decision - it was fight or die! The F.B.I. broke into the house and Mathews fought them bullet for bullet and blow for blow. The Feds were no match for Mathews and so they set fire to the house which resulted in the death of a fearless White Warrior.

"I am not going to waste my time or yours. I am sorry for the grief and pain I have caused my dear wife and family. Whatever happens to me, I'd like to bring honour to my family and kinsmen, and glory to God."

Bruce Carroll Pierce.
100 years for racketeering and conspiracy. 150 years for killing Alan Berg. 2 years for previous counterfeiting conviction.

"What we did wasn't out of racial hatred. It was love of my own kind, my country, my Faith, and my culture. I won't plead to this court for any leniency because I know I won't receive any. Our system is breeding a generation that will destroy itself. Blood will flow, and it grieves me."

Gary Lee Yarbrough.
25 years for assaulting FBI agent and weapons offences (10 years later knocked off). 60 years for racketeering.

THE ORDER DECLARED WAR ON Z.O.G. IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE GENEVA CONVENTION. MORE AND MORE AMERICANS ARE SEEING THE FEDERAL SYSTEM AS THE ENEMY

All the remaining members of The Order received heavy prison sentences and Eldon Bud Cutler joined them for planning the assasination of the Judas Martinez.

Mathews did not die in vain. The acorns were planted and one day oaks will prevail. All White Patriots must never forget the sacrifice of Robert Jay Mathews. On the 8th of December each year a day of remembrance is held in the USA in honour of him. Surely something similar should be organised in other countries as a salute to the hero who stood against our enemies and changed the face of White Seperatism.

"I have given all that I have to assure there will be future generations of White children. If the final victory be yours, then God have mercy on the last generation of White children."

David Lane.
40 years for racketeering and conspiracy. 150 years for killing Alan Berg.

"We all knew it would be like this, that it would be our own brothers who would first try to destroy our efforts to save our Race and our terminally ill nation. Why are so many White men so eager to destroy their own kind for the benefit of the Jews and the mongrels?

"I see three FBI agents hiding behind some trees to the north of the house. I could easily have killed them, I had their faces in my sights. They look like good racial stock yet all their talents are given to a government which is openly trying to mongrelise the very Race these agents are part of. Why can't they see? White men killing White men, Saxon killing Dane; When will it end? The Aryans bane?

"I knew last night that today would be my last day in this life. When I went to bed I saw all my loved ones so clearly, as if they were there with me. All my memories flashed through my mind. I knew then that my tour of duty was up.

"I have been a good soldier, a fearless warrior. I will die with honour and join my brothers in Valhalla.

"For Blood, Soil and Honour. For Faith and for Race. For the future of my children. For the green graves of my sires."

Robert Jay Mathews.

HAIL BOB MATHEWS!

HAIL THE ORDER!

CARA AL SOL

In the month of November, five members of the ITP, representing the West Country, the Midlands, the North East, Wales and the English Marches, decided to attend the annual Franco celebrations in Madrid, Spain.

The ITP's own "bearded Arab" was in charge of transport, a decision some of us were later to regret.

I was picked up in the Midlands late in the evening so as to give us plenty of time to get to the early morning flight. Four breakdowns and four hours later we had only travelled thirty miles. It seemed as though we were not destined to attend the event. We phoned our travelling campanions who were in London and pleaded with them to come and get us. One hour later they turned up at the service station where we were parked. I have never been so happy to see two such ugly brutes in all my life. After setting out with plenty of time to get some sleep we only made the flight with about half an hour to spare.

The matchsticks holding up my eyelids truly were at breaking point.

THE FLIGHT

Any hope of sleep on the plane was put to death immediatley with some jovial bantering with one member of our group who had never flown before. It looked as though a coronary was on the cards.

We all had a pleasant suprise when we discovered a Spanish Comrade (who lives in London) was sitting behind us.

A couple of hours later we arrived in Madrid and while it wasn't exactly summer sun it was a big improvement to the freezing winter back in 'blighty'.

We were picked up by Spanish Comrades at the airport and taken to an apartment of a friendly Nationalist family for a rest and discussions. One beautiful meal later, we headed out for a night out on the town with Comrades. When we arrived at the cafe there were already about fifty National Revolutionaries there and it was brilliant to drink and chat with fellow Nationalists and tell tales of battles and experiences.

The night was full of fun, discussion, drinking and singing. We were pleased to see a few Nationalists from Scotland and elsewhere and we had a great time talking about the state of Britain and discussing the best way to make change.

MORE FRIENDS

One of our Comrades at one stage left one of the pubs we were "occupying" with two Portuguese Comrades to head for a bar a few doors away at the request of an older Nationalist they'd bumped into earlier. It turned out the bar staff were all Spanish Nationalists and the three friends were treated to a fair few free beers. The gent who'd told them about the bar was pleased to see the younger generation, throughout Europe, picking up the gauntlet thrown down by our foes just as his generation had.

Later we entered a Heavy Metal type bar which served drinks in huge glasses - big enough for a few pints. Our round came to over £12 - though the Comrade whose round it was didn't find it as amusing as the rest of us did. I can't think why.

At the end of the night, after walking around the centre of Madrid from bar to bar making friends all the while, we headed back to our digs in the city centre which our Spanish Comrades had provided for us for free. At 3AM I was totally shattered and well ready for dreamland. However three of our contingent headed for an all night cafe for some grub. I hope the McDonalds rumours are unfounded lads!

I was up at nine the next morning and joined the others at a cafe for breakfast. The 6 hours sleep we had on the Sunday morning was to be the only sleep we would have from the Friday to the Monday. The sight of these 'warriors' tucking into a plateful of chips at 9.30 in the morning was a sight to behold.

At about 11 O'Clock we joined about 100 National Revolutionaries to march to the celebration. The 'Old Guard' were already there but the National Revolutionaries and the skinheads make a point of marching to the event. Many joined us en route. It was a brilliant feeling especially as we knew many of the Comrades from the night before.

THOUSANDS

When we arrived at the event I could hardly believe my eyes. There were thousands of Nationalists there all saluting the memory of Franco and Jose Antonio Prima de Rivera.

The whole place seemed to be ringing with Nationalist songs and there were flags and banners everywhere. The National Anthem was sung with gusto, as were the various Falangist songs, intermixed with shouts of "Franco", "Arriba Espana" and "Jose Antonio Prima de Rivera"

Jose Antonio Prima de Rivera, leader of the Spanish Falange, martyred for Spain and Europe in 1936, aged 33. This attractive full colour A2 poster is available from Final Conflict for just £4 inc. postage (£5 outside Europe).

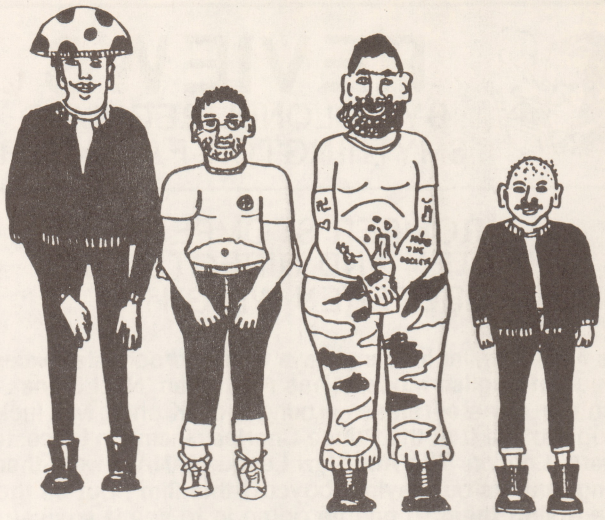
There were dozens of stalls there selling goodies and our lot were busy buying merchandise of the Falange and Jose Antonio - a Movement and its leader who have influenced us greatly.

Our stall was up and running too, selling T Shirts, Final Conflicts, videos, papers, posters etc.

The brilliant gathering passed all too quickly and after a slap up binge in a bar (except for our vegetarian who had to nibble at a few lettuce leaves) it was time to say our farewells. It was a sad moment; though one of our folk did stay on and was kindly shown around Valencia by our Spanish Comrades.

MEMORIES

The two things that I remember most about the trip were: firstly the unity of the celebration. Although not everybody agreed on every point there was a strong feeling of Comradeship - something the Movement in these isles could take heed of.



Four of the Travellers. We understand legal proceedings are being taken against the artist.

Secondly I remember an elderly woman saluting the memory of the defeat of Communism and the heroism of the Nationalist forces, with tears streaming down her face.

I looked around and saw hardened Revolutionary Nationalists with lumps in their throats and tears in their eyes at the sight of this old woman.

It is at times like this that we know that our Cause is Just and True, and that no matter how many years of Sacrifice and Struggle we go through, Victory will be ours.

Arriba Espana ~ Arriba Europa. See you next year.

FRIENDS AND ENEMIES

We start off this issue's 'Friends and Enemies' with a sticker (1) from the good side in France. Everybody knows Mossad, or affiliated shady groups, are behind terrible "nazi attrocities" such as Bologna in 1980 and more recently Carpentras in France where Jewish graves were vandalised and desecrated. Naturally, Nationalists get the blame for such 'attrocities'. The French know - "It's Mossad who throw the bombs".

From there, we go on to (2) an anonymous Red sticker, (3) an AFA sticker and (4) a DAM sticker. DAM are one of the groups who make up AFA along with Red Action and other assorted full-time losers. All three stickers are boringly similar.

(3)

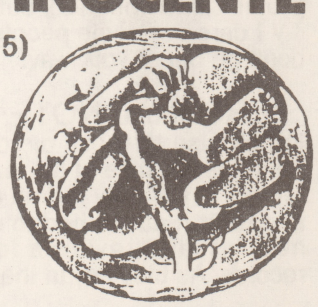
Abortion

We finish (5) with a Area Terceirista sticker. AT are Comrades from Portugal. Quite rightly the sticker tells us "Abortion: a crime without punishment." Just how long will what remains of "European civilisation" allow babies to be killed in "clinics"? All of us with any sense of morality should be at the forefront of the fight to defend the lives of the unborn children. What need to wallow in made-up holocausts of the past when a very real one is happening before our eyes? It's time people woke up to the truth.

(5)



If you've any stickers (from goodies or baddies) send them to us for 'FRIENDS AND ENEMIES' at: Final Conflict, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England. More 'F&E' next issue.

REVIEWS

BY COLONEL REGINALD SMYTHINGTON-FAULKNER

"ROMPER STOMPER" WRITTEN AND DIRECTED BY GEOFFREY WRIGHT

This film is similar in many ways to 'Quadrophenia' except instead of English Mods, it has Australian 'Nazi Skins'. It wasn't on general release around the UK and I was lucky enough to see it at the Prince Charles cinema in Leicester Square, London. The Anti Nazi League (ANAL) were there giving leaflets out saying 'boycott this film', but as they were giving them to people going in to see it anyway it was a waste of time on their part. A few White liberals felt guilty though and they wore the ANAL stickers whilst watching the film !?! But onto the film . . .

It revolves around a small gang of 'Nazi Skins' who have a 'residence' in Melbourne. They seem to enjoy picking off gooks (even little boys and girls) and end up fighting a gang of them much larger than themselves, and though they pick off a lot of them, only about five of the gang survive, the others left in pools of blood (presumably still alive though).

By this time the leader "Hondo" has picked up an ex-junkie (whose father has abused her) who later, after they split, tells the police where they are. The police then raid their new hide out and shoot "Bubs", the youngest one, through the head.

The film ends when Hondo, who has escaped the police, Davey (his right hand man) and the ex-junkie try to move elsewhere. Davey's in love with the girl and when Hondo finds out she 'grassed' on them he tries to kill her, but Davey kills him with a Hitler Jugend knife he'd bought off a skinhead from Canberra earlier in the film.

I wasn't especially inspired by the film as it made the 'Nazi Skins' out to be just like any other gang, but slightly political. There was the odd 'National Action' sticker in view, plus a Southern Cross flag, just to have a dig at Australian Nationalist movements. At one stage Hondo calls some hippies "degenerates" for smoking dope, but to my mind the same could be said about him and his friends.

Probably the most disconcerting thing about the film was the audience. One Australian sitting near by shouted "hooray" when a 'gook' smacked a skinhead which a chunk of wood (or something) at which point I reminded him of certain facts. The other disturbing thing was a gang of sad faggot scum sitting in a row near the back.

Anyway, all in all I wouldn't rate this film too much (I prefer Quadrophenia), but if it comes out on video or on TV I dare say some people will watch it; but my advice is don't go out of your way.

PERSONAL NOTE FROM THE COLONEL

I apologise to those of you using a magnifying glass to read this because of the size of the typeface, but the tight lot at FC will only let me have one page for my reviews and to fit it all in I had to use this smaller writing. I hope next issue to review a few books as well as films and records. As they say in the trade - watch this space.

BOUND FOR GLORY "OVER THE TOP"

In the last issue of FINAL CONFLICT we had an interview with the excellent band, Bound For Glory. They now have a brilliant new LP out.

I did not think that it would be possible for BFG to be able to surpass 'when the Hammer Falls' but they have done it with 'Over The Top'. The first song is the title track and as always with BFG the first song is one of the most powerful.

The Task is a great song about a skinhead fighting for what he believes in and not caring about what the bleeding heart liberals say.

The Victory Song is a great song with a great melody that sticks in your mind and the guitar work is excellent.

The last song on side one is The Good Fight which I personally feel is one of the best songs that BFG have ever done. It tells of a Comrade who was killed while fighting for his land and Nation, something that touches the hearts of all Revolutionary Nationalists.

Side two opens with The Way It Should Be. I am pretty sure that this song is about the Aryan Fest. It's a great song telling the story about the events, such as White weddings, speeches and saluting the unity of it all.

Next comes one of the best songs on the LP: Stuka Pilot, Fight or Die which is the story of the German Luftwaffe. This song would be brilliant if played live as it's a real 'stomper'. I can't get the tune out of my head.

The LP carries on in the same vein with not one bad song on it. After 'Stuka Pilot' the best songs are The Good Fight and Fall of the Tyrant which quotes a speech by Cornelieu Codreanu, so all dedicated National Revolutionaries will have a special regard for this one.

I can't wait for their next release because each LP so far has been better than the last. Therefore the next one will really be carved in stone.

BRUTAL ATTACK "INTO APOCALYPSE"

This is Brutal Attack's 6th LP and it does not disappoint. When 'Steel Rolling On' was released it seemed that it was the end of Brutal Attack but not so. Since then we had the excellent 'Lost and Found' and now 'Into Apocalypse'. This LP seems to be a bit of a change in style compared to Brutal Attack's previous LPs. The more recent BA LPs have tended to be similar to AC/DC in style. However this LP in my view seems to be more of a rock n roll tradition similar to the 2nd and 3rd Klansmen LPs. However the change is not dramatic and anyone who likes BA's previous LPs is bound to enjoy this one. It kicks off with one of the strongest tracks 'Born to be Bad'. The third song on side one is the excellent rock ballad 'These Tears are Real'. A real classic. Then comes the title track. This song is one of the few songs on the album that shows a real departure in style for BA. It is almost a blues number!

The next song 'It's Your Shame' is similar to the band's early 'Stronger Than Before Style', raw but enjoyable. On side two the excellent 'Forbidden Love' really is a rock n roller and I reckon this would be a really good song for a gig. Even the worst wallflower would have to get their toe tapping to this one. 'Broken Down Angel' is the fourth song on side two and in my opinion is probably the strongest song on the album. Really powerful and melodic. The LP ends with 'Shine On' a stomping song which really stays in your mind. Overall the LP is really good and definately worth a buy. The lyric do not appear to be very political. I don't know if that is intentional or not but it doesn't really matter because the LP is worth getting for musical value alone.

A 'DAY TRIP' TO CASTLEREAGH

SIX O'CLOCK Monday morning - someone knocking on my front door! "Cops or Provos?" Doubt the IRA would knock first, must be the RUC. Yes it is. Get dressed, go and open the door. "Warrant card and search warrant please", then let them in. Five in uniform, one plain clothes. The search is under the Prevention of Terrorism Act (PTA), i.e. they can do anything they like.

The reason for the search is that they 'believe' I have been planting incendiary devices and posting letter bombs on behalf of the Animal Liberation Front (ALF). Oh please, don't be silly.

WHAT A LOT OF 'GOODIES'

After a few minutes the plain clothes chap goes out (for advice?) as my home is not what he thought it would be like. On his return they take away the following: copies of 'NF News'; 'Ulster Nation'; 'Green Anarchist'; 'Ulster Dawn'; 'S.A.R.P.'; An anti-homosexual booklet and poster; 'Final Conflict'; an R.H.C. booklet, 'Ideas For the Furture'; Black Flag'; 'A.T.R.' booklet; 'British Oi'; 'Combat and Survival'; a few patriotic posters; four videos; five photo albums; a few patriotic leaflets; my address books; a tin of paint; a tube of super glue and last of all one of those vey small tapes. Did someone say "ALF?"

Then at about 7.45 I was arrested (what a shock) and taken to THE Castlereagh Holding Centre. Upon arrival, name address, date of birth and then "No Comment". "Sign This", "No!", "It's just for your property", "No"- off to a cell. Off to sleep, woken up to see a doctor. Woken up again for a photo, "No Thanks!", "You have to have it taken", "No Thanks". Go back to sleep. "Breakfast?", "No thanks", "Are you a vegan?" "No comment".

FRIENDLY CHAT?

Then some time later woken up for the first interview. Sit sideways on my chair so my back is to the wall. This stops one cop walking around behind me, as he would like to do later in the 'talk'. Most of this interview is meant for them to get to know you. They talked about football, the holocaust, the NF, your family, their family, homosexuals, work or lack of, Benito Mussolini, Malcolm X, MI5, UVF, UDA, IRA etc. . . They even talked about "the scum in the ghettos in West Belfast, both lots of the f------ vermin up the Shankill and the Falls." Thus spoke 'Judas'. It all sounds harmless, but it will only help them, not you and yours to talk to them. It will let them know what you think like and will allow them to talk about things that will get to you in time - remember that you could be here for seven days.

They kept on that "You won't even stand by your ideas, what a s---head . . ." "No Comment", you can think what you like in your head, but say nothing.

They read me accusations that they said had "been put to them", "No Comment". This was a tiny bit of bad form, as it did sound as if someone was talking crap to the cops about me. Later it worked out that they were reading from a letter from a person in Belfast to a prisoner in England. Quite a shock what the state keeps in your file. The photo of me is a 'still' from a video taken over a year ago (8/9/92). Some of their questions proved that I had been on file from as long ago as 1988 and that newspapers are a source of information for the cops. I don't have a criminal record, all this is just "Big Brother".

OTHERS TOO?

At one point a cop gave the impression that a number of young ladies I know of were under arrest, oh damn, that's just not cricket! The cop went on, "You bastard sitting here with your "No Comment" while those girls are wetting their knickers." I just had to laugh as a little angel floated into my mind to ask a question.

I spent the rest of the day trying not to laugh and saying "No Comment". At about 5.30 in the evening, third interview, I was told I would be released which was at about 5.55. They gave me back almost everything they had taken. I did not sign for it.

I would recommend that you read "A P.O.W. Writes" from Nationalism Today Issue 40 and "Arrest and Interrogation" from NF News Issue 78. I don't care who you are or what views you have, if you have not read these articles, or similar ones, you are a security risk.

If you send £1 to 'FINAL CONFLICT' they will send you both. You don't have to break the law to go to prison.

"HANG ALL QUEERS"

Says Pastor P.J. Peters, in his widely acclaimed masterpiece 'Intolerance of, Discrimination Against and the Death Penalty for Homosexuals Is Prescribed in the Bible'.

Well that is good news I must say. This outstanding American booklet should be read by everyone. It shows Queers for the vile low life that they are by quoting them. For example: "If you dare to cry faggot, fairy, queer at us, we will stab you in your cowardly hearts and defile your dead, puny bodies . . ." said a queer, Michael Swift, to which no doubt the reply from the decent folk in society will be "Fetch the Rope".

This booklet is a helpful weapon in this, the Final Conflict. £2 each or ten copies for £11 inc. p&p.

'The Anti-Humans' by D. Bacu describes what was done to the young men whom Codreanu, founder of the Iron Guard, inspired when seven years after his brutal murder Romania was delivered to the Bolsheviks. Reading about the torture, experiments etc. will be an emotional experience you will never forget. A truly excellent book. £8 inc. p&p.

YOUR LETTERS

RUNRIG

Dear FC,

In issue 2 you asked people to write in about different kinds of music likely to appeal to young Europeans. I'm writing to recommend Runrig. They are one of the most popular bands in Scotland and their brand of folk rock will go down well with anyone who wants their music to be lively, traditional and modern.

The very first track on their Highland Collection CD (RRCD001 on the Ridge Lable) is a pre-16th century Clan Donald song praising the young heroes sailing off to raid Ireland. Imagine a cross between Flower of Scotland and the fast bits of Lynyrd Skynyrd's Freebird and you'll get the general idea.

Other tracks on the album include a great arrangement of Loch Lomond, a Skye love song and a couple of strong folk rock instrumentals.

Runrig are definately a political band, giving their contribution to keep Scottish Gaelic alive as well as the culture of the Highlands. The sleeve note points out that "Throughout the centuries, the Highlands have suffered oppression and injustice. Even now young people are denied a true awareness of their history and culture . . ."

Of course, it's also a reflection of a society dominated by liberal-Jewish 'One World' propaganda, but you can't say that and still have your CDs sold in Woolworths! But as Runrig don't say it (shame) their CDs are pretty easy to get hold of.

If you've any Scottish blood (or even if you haven't) give Runrig a try - you won't regret it,

For a Free White Scotland,
Davey,
Edinburgh, Scotland.

GERMANY

Dear FC,

Overall FC#2 was really good, but I think your article about Rostock was a bit too optimistic. It is true that in East Germany the situation is a lot better than here in the West, but I do not think that the leftists in Berlin will soon be wiped out.

The State is fighting Nationalists very hard. The German NF was banned, even though it had party status and so could not be banned by the Secretary of the Interior - legally. But the State does not need laws, so the NF, Nationale Offensive and Deutsche Alternative (all parties) were banned anyway.

There are many house searches and activists being arrested. Yesterday there were again more than 25 police raids against Nationalists and they "found" an unbelievable amount of explosives. For now they are concentrating on people who might have organised attacks on foreigners, but there are politicians who want all Nationalist groups banned.

The average citizen seems divided. There are those who march with candles through our streets because they feel compassion for the "poor" foreigners. The poorer Germans don't like it when a negro seems to have more money than them.

My hope is that the economy keeps weakening and the flood of blacks, browns and yellows increases. That is our only chance - as long as the people have full stomachs their brains are empty. As long as they have things to lose they won't risk it.

Your Comrade,
O.K., Karlsruhe, Germany.

GERMANY 2

Dear FC,

I think you know about the incidents that've happened in the last few months here. It's a hard time for us now. Every inch of your movement is watched - even if you just intend to meet some friends for a drink. More political groups (like the NF) will be banned, as well as music bands/records. Now it is smart for a statesman to pour tirades of hatred against the Nationalist movement. Every day we read about the "light lines" (people with small candles) in German towns - even here in Constance.

I think most of the mugging of aliens in the street and the assaults on homes of asylum seekers (rightful or not) is wrong. The large part of the movement can't be permitted to become a 'terrorist' organisation.

What we need is a small but agile, nimble-minded and powerful task force, like the South African "Ystergarde" (AWB), not something like the German SA before WW2. They were the right device for then - a brutal force with the purpose to provoke the enemy. It's right that people have to be trained to strike, but you can achieve that in legal ways. They don't have to be part of a rioting mob.

The greatest reputation belongs to those who stand on the streets and put up posters, stickers, and give out leaflets. Here you have to do it in secret, or fear for your life. In public opinion we are 'the bad guys'.

Our main goal for the near future is to avoid being stripped of our civil rights and not to lose our hope and faith in the legitimacy of our struggle. Even if there's just a small group of people we can show that we are going to go on for ever!

Yours For Our Nations
S.H., Konstanz, Germany.

GERMANY 3

Dear FC,

I thought your article 'The Road to Rostock and Beyond' (FC#2) was excellent. I have had a comprehensive report from a Comrade who was there. He thought those that damaged cars etc. belonging to locals were wrecked by Red infiltrators. The patriots distanced themselves from these actions, but still lost some support.

I am pleased you mentioned the extra parliamentary means of petitioning and lobbying which failed, before the demonstration was called. It was mischievous of the media to dismiss the communities' actions as "neo-nazi". It was the immigrants behaviour that raised the anger of the communities and of the patriots.

Comradely Regards,
Midlands Nationalist, England.

If you want to send a letter into Final Conflict, please try and keep it brief, interesting and to the point. If necessary we will edit letters, especially if they make reference to turnip farming, strange foliage, train spotting or interesting, yet exotic, sandwiches. Please send all letters to:

YES, IT'S THAT WHACKY RON AGAIN - AND BOY, DOES HE HATE LIBERALS!

BACK CHAT WITH RANTING RON

I was waiting at a tube station the other day when I saw what I assumed was a skinhead strolling down the crowded platform. To my horror when it went by I saw the thing had sown a large pink triangle on the back of its flyer. It shows how sick and deranged this society has become when poof gits like that can stroll around displaying their sickness without fear. # I see Clinton wants to let the queers join the U.S. Army. The U.S. Zionist entity is going to collapse like so many empires before it (and not before time). # I hear a SWP march about Malcolm X was attacked by Blacks. When will Red liberals learn?

THE RON AWARDS

This issue's "All Time Loser" award goes to Kit Hesketh-Harvey (who should get it anyway for being a cabaret artist and having such a cracking name) who doesn't want his wife (actress Katie Rabett - no jokes please) to have any more children (they have two) because, he says, that would be "ecologically unsound". Quick Jethro - get the sick bucket!

This issue's "Big Thumbs Up" award goes to Michael Griffin who shot dead "Doctor" David Gunn - an American mass murderer who was allowed to walk around free despite killing untold numbers of babies in an abortion clinic. By blowing this human garbage away Michael did us all a favour and if only one baby was saved too - even better.

Send Ron fan mail and/or nominations for 'The Ron Awards' to Ranting Ron at: Final Conflict, BCM 6358, London, WC1N 3XX, England.

Repetition of rape by former rapists is almost certain, as most are mentally defective.

When those who violate God's Laws are punished according to God's Judgments (punishments), the citizens enjoy justice, order, quietness, and peace. God says: "When My judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Is. 26:9).

What a corker of a cartoon - let's see the liberals moan about that one. Anti-Rapist/Paedophile posters are available from FC. Send an SAE/IRC for one. Bundles are also available to put up in your area (write to FC for rates). Let's show the dross we mean business. HANG RAPISTS.

Remember - every pint you buy lines the Zionist government's pockets. Try home brew. Well, that's it for now - see you next time. Let it burn. RON.
